Subject: SnapNames Legal Action against ICANN

Dear Paul and Vint:

SnapNames has elected to withdraw its legal action against ICANN. We have instructed our attorneys to so notify the court, and they will also be in touch with your attorneys accordingly.

Our company is well aware of the strategic work being done at ICANN at present, the progress made with ccTLD managers, and the ongoing discussion with the US government and international organizations about the role and scope of ICANN. SnapNames is prepared to contribute constructively to further development in our industry and effective cooperation. If there is any way we can contribute to the productive development of ICANN, I trust you will call on us.

Best Regards.
