Proposed Service

Name of Proposed Service:

Release of Country and Territory Names .TUI

Technical description of Proposed Service:

Pursuant to Section 4 of Specification 5 of the Registry Agreement between ICANN and TUI AG ("Registry Operator"), we request the release of reserved Country and Territory Names. These include:\n1. The short form (in English) of all country and territory names contained on the ISO 3166-1 list, as updated from time to time, including the European Union, which is exceptionally reserved on the ISO 3166-1 list, and its scope extended in August 1999 to any application needed to represent the name European Union,\n2. The United Nations Group of Experts on Geographical Names, Technical Reference Manual for the Standardization of Geographical Names, Part III Names of Countries of the World, and\n3. The list of United Nations member states in 6 official United Nations languages prepared by the Working Group on Country Names of the United Nations Conference on the Standardization of Geographical Names.\n\n

Consultation

Please describe with specificity your consultations with the community, experts and or others. What were the quantity, nature and content of the consultations?:

Registry Operator has not undertaken direct consultation with the community, experts or others. Registry Operator relies on the historical availability of such names in legacy domains, as well as the recent comments of the Governmental Advisory Committee in its March 27, 2014 Singapore Communique whereby it indicated no major concerns about brand owners seeking approval for the release of country names and two-letter and character codes at the second level.\n\nRegistry Operator is a brand owner seeking approval for the release of country and territory names in the .TUI TLD, for which it has applied to operate as a ".Brand" TLD in accordance with Specification 13 to the Registry Agreement. Since such names will be used for the purposes of the representation of our company, it is almost impossible to anticipate any abuse or misconduct, or that such domain name could be confusing to users or otherwise offensive to any country.\n\n

a. If the registry is a sponsored TLD, what were the nature and content of these consultations with the sponsored TLD community?:

Not applicable

b. Were consultations with gTLD registrars or the registrar constituency appropriate? Which registrars were consulted? What were the nature and content of the consultation?:

Not applicable\r\n

c. Were consultations with other constituency groups appropriate? Which groups were consulted? What were the nature and content of these consultations?:

Not applicable\r\n

d. Were consultations with end users appropriate? Which groups were consulted? What were the nature and content of these consultations?:

As Registry Operator intends to operate the .TUI TLD as a .Brand TLD wherein only it, its Affiliates or Trademark Licensees are permitted as registrants of domain names, Registry Operator relies on its business plans and marketing strategies in concluding that real demand and utility exists for the release of country and territory names to support its activities in the TLD. \r\n e. Who would endorse the introduction of this service? What were the nature and content of these consultations?:

Registry Operator, as the eventual registrant of the relevant domain names in its .Brand TLD, supports the release of country and territory for use in conjunction with its business purposes in a non-confusing manner. Furthermore, Registry Operator's customers and partners who will utilize and identify the .TUI TLD as the trusted namespace associated with Registry Operator would benefit from and support this proposal. As indicated above, the GAC has not identified concerns or significant issues in the release of such names. \r\n

f. Who would object the introduction of this service? What were(or would be) the nature and content of these consultations?:

In light of the intended use of the TLD, the lack of objection from the GAC, and, if relevant, the consent of ICANN for the release of country and territory names, there does not appear to be any interested governmental authority, entity, or individual who would object to the release of country and territory names in accordance with this proposal. In the event that a relevant concern be raised, Registry Operator is prepared to engage the concerned party in accordance with any process specially developed for such purpose or as otherwise required by ICANN.\r\n
